Friction set to storm St Austell

- Major Drum n bass promoter comes to town
- Simon 'Bassline' Smith heading the line-up

Plymouth's premier drum n bass crew are set to make their St Austell debut by rocking the foundations of Puls8 night club! The new bi-monthly event will begin on Thursday 27th November and is being headed up by Simon 'Bassline' Smith of Technique recordings. With a solid line-up of awesome supporting DJs, this one is going to go right off!

Influenced by his love of underground funk, soul and hip-hop the infamous Simon 'Bassline' Smith started spinning the decks at an early age. At this point in his life he was setting the stage for the rest of his musical career by pioneering the sound of the underground all over
