Drum n Bass Diva to hit Southwest

- Miss Represent's debut Southwest performance
- A night of pure jump-up to get the party started

The Friction crew are back again for their next promotion in the series at St Austell's Puls-8 nightclub! The event continues this Thursday 28th May and is being headlined by Miss Represent. With a whole host of supporting DJs and MCs ... this event is sure to kick-start your summer!

After the success of the first three events, the Friction crew are gearing up for a night of pounding grooves with the next headliner... Miss Represent! Playing in some of the nation's biggest club nights, including Valve (Brunel Rooms), Herbal (London), EQ Stratford (London), SE1 (London), Scala (London), Cornhall (Cirencester), and Raveology (Air Birmingham) to name a few, this UK based DJ has been rocking dancefloors world-wide. She has been featured on the MC Convention tape pack alongside Skibadee and Shabba D and her presence has been featured in many publications, including EGG, Hardstep Sistaz, Dogsonacid, the BBC and also various newspapers. After winning the liquidfunk.co.uk mix competition and later also qualifying as a finalist in the Movement and Driveby Competition at Bristol Academy in 2004, Miss Represent started playing outside of her homeland. She also went on to headline many more venues abroad to include The Wagon Club (Poland), Club Cube (Lodz Poland), Porto Play DnB (Portugal) and Lisbon (Portugal) with many return visits to each part of Germany.

In addition to Miss Represent, the event is due to showcase performances from Fibua, Indica, Lauski hyper B, Klutz, Mat White, and also the Code-red boys from Newquay, Re-defeat and Corp. Microphone duties this time around fall to MC toggz and Impact.

Co-promoters Simon Zeslawski and Kieren Le-Mar say "This event will be an all-out fiesta of pure "jump-up" drum and bass. Many thanks to all the fans who supported Friction over the four events and we hope to be back in July with more pounding promotions featuring Drumsound... watch this space!"

Friction runs from 10pm until 2am and costs £5, or £4 before midnight for the ladies. Coaches are now running from Truro, Bodmin, Falmouth, Penryn, Liskeard, Camborne, Redruth, Helston and Plymouth. For your local bus details please contact events travel on 07779232854 for more information.
